POST SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

for Nuffield Scholars

Nuffield Australia is focused on the continuous learning and development of our Alumni. As such, each year we offer opportunities for Scholars to continue their professional development through participation in leadership courses around the globe. This is made possible by the generous contributions of our benefactors; Lorna and Bert Kelly, Peter Rose, Ann (and Robert) Harrison, Hugh and Jenny Roberts, and Keith McLean. Airfares are supported by iTravel Griffith.

SCHOLARS WILL BE SELECTED BASED ON:

- Suitability to the course and what would be gained from the experience
- Evidence of engagement with Nuffield and investor/industry during, and since, the Scholarship
- Opportunities and ideas to share learnings from the experience to fellow Scholars and industry
- Having completed and submitted a Scholarship report in full

- > Bursaries of up to $5,000 available + international airfares
- > Applications must close Friday 9 September

OPPORTUNITIES INCLUDE:

- 51st Session of the Committee on World Food Security (CFS) in Rome
- The 'Worshipful Company of Farmers Advanced Course in Agricultural Business Management', Cirencester, UK
- The 'Executive Program for Agricultural Producers', Texas A&M University, USA
- The 'Challenge for Rural Leadership Course', Duchy College, UK
- Australian Institute of Company Directors' course, Australia
- The 'Rabobank Executive Development Program' in Australia
- The 'ABARES Outlook National Conference' in Canberra
