Winding Up and Revocation

68. (a) Subject to the Act and the ACNC Act, if upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains after satisfaction of all debts and liabilities any property whatsoever (including 'gift funds' defined in paragraph (d) below which have been donated to the Company or the Public Fund) the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the Company but shall be given to or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Company and which also prohibits the distribution of any surplus assets to its members to at least the same extent as the Company and that is a deductible gift recipient within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) .

(b) The decision as to the organisation to be given the surplus assets must be made by a special resolution of the Members at or before the time of winding up. If the Members do not make this decision, the Company may apply to the Supreme Court to make this decision.

(c) If the Company or Public Fund's deductible gift recipient endorsement is revoked (whether or not the Company is to be wound up), any surplus gift funds must be transferred to one or more institutions that meet the requirements of Clause 68 (a), as decided by the Board.

(d) For the purpose of this rule:

(a) 'gift funds' means:

(i) gifts of money or property for the principal purpose of the Company or Public Fund

(ii) contributions made in relation to a fund-raising event held for the principal purpose of the Company or Public Fund

(iii) money received by the Company because of such gifts and contributions.

(b) 'contributions' and 'fund-raising event' have the same meaning as in Division 30 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).

Indemnity

69. Every member of the Board and every Committee member, Company Secretary and other officer for the time being of the Company is to the extent permitted by law indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by them arising out of the execution of the duties of their office.

Amendment

70. This Constitution may be amended by a special resolution of Members passed in accordance with the Act, providing that no less than twenty eight (28) days notice of such special resolution shall have been given to Members, every Director and the Auditor and providing further that no proposed amendment would have the effect of changing the status of the Company as a non profit making body.

Guarantee

71. Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the property of the Company in the event of its being wound up while they are a member, or within one year after they cease to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before they cease to be a member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding ten dollars ($10.00).
